

PLAN INSTALLATION . . . Mary Ann Lenton, left, and her staff who will serve Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters during the ensuing term, will be inducted Saturday evening in impressive ceremonies in Masonic Temple. A beautiful Book of Gold theme has been chosen. Everyone is invited. The honored queen-elect, a senior at Narbonne High School, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Lenton of 1447 W. 220th street. Pictured with Miss Lenton is the retiring honored queen, Miss Marian McDonald, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. McDonald, of Beech avenue, who concludes a most successful term of office.

PTA PLANS CHRISTMAS MEET 13TH

A program of musical numbers to be presented by the school children, will feature the Christmas meeting of 186th PTA on Thursday, December 13 at 10:30 on the school grounds.

A special invitation is extended to all parents and association members to attend this very fine program which has been planned by the children.

Board members will be hostesses for the social hour which will follow the program.

Mrs. Claud Hill, president of 186th Street PTA, requests that all board members be present at the executive board meeting to be held Wednesday December 12 at 1 p.m. in the teacher's room. Plans are to be completed for the Christmas meeting and children's party.

Timmy Stock Arrives 2nd

Of interest here is news of the birth of Timothy Craig Stock, who arrived Sunday at Torrance Memorial Hospital. The baby is the son of Sergeant 1/c Norman R. Stock, stationed in Japan with the 578th Engineers, and Mrs. Stock, the former Norma Owen of Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Stock is making her home with her parents in Redondo Beach until her husband returns from overseas.

Timmy's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stock of 1412 Manuel avenue and Mr. and Mrs. James Owen of Redondo Beach.

Before he was called to active duty the Stocks lived on Marcelina avenue and he was employed in Pacific Electric Company's Torrance plant as a store-keeper.

Job's Queen Entertains Bethel Choir

Climaxing her term as honored queen, Miss Marian McDonald entertained the members of her celestial choir of Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters at a regular choir practice Tuesday evening held in the home of Mrs. C. W. Robison. Singing, games and knitting occupied the girls, and during the evening group singing, under direction of Jeannette Harris, was featured.

Present were the Misses Glenda Wells, Peggy Wood, Dana Cecil, Carolyn Chapman, Judy Cook, Alice Olson, Janie Moffatt, Janice Crabtree, Susan Babcock, Elizabeth and Lillian Hedgecock, Sally Speck, Jeanette Harris, Charlotte Anderson, Carolyn and Dorothy Kush, Sally Hickman, Judy Wolf, Donald, assisted by her daughter, Marian, and Miss Mary Ann Lenton, newly-elected queen, served party refreshments.

REUNION

Mrs. Ila Gilbert was a recent house guest at Sepulveda where she visited Mr. Gilbert's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Habig.

DINNER GUESTS

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Burchett, 1507 El Prado, were Messrs. Earl Barnett and George A. Fultz, principal and vice-principal, respectively, of Narbonne High School.

ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Ruth Rogers entertained at a dinner party recently for Torrance and out-of-town relatives and intimate friends.

OES Officers To Preside At First Meet

The stated meeting of Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star will be held this evening in Masonic Temple.

Alethea Smith, worthy matron, and Floyd Moad, worthy patron, assisted by their new corps of officers, will preside for the first time, and Vivian Cook, junior past matron and Gordon Mothersell, junior past patron, will be given special escort and seated in the East.

Chairman for the evening is Rolive Bever.

Betty Lou Is Six Now

Betty Lou, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Grenzow of 1304 Beech avenue, was the center of attraction Saturday afternoon when her mother entertained at a children's party in their home.

Games occupied the group after Betty Lou had opened her many gifts.

Seated at a pretty party table the honoree and her guests enjoyed a beautifully decorated large birthday cake, a gift of Betty Lou's uncle, Mr. Frank Gates of Compton, which was served with other refreshments.

Present were Beverly Ann Foster, Mickey and Mary Gertrude Green, Joan Cooper, Terry Cullen, Judy and Ruth Ann Childson, Mary Simpson, Kenny Williams, all of Torrance, and Johnny Gates of Hawthorne.

Also present were Mrs. Priscilla Gates of Hawthorne, the little girl's great-grandmother, and Mmes. Georgia Campanella and Bertha Gates of Hawthorne, her great-aunts, as well as two cousins, Mrs. Chuck Gates and Miss Dixie Lee Gates, also of Hawthorne.
